MEN ARE RESTLESS

(Special By Scripps-Mellae.)
Shenandoah, Pa., August 7.—The strike situation this morning remains practically unchanged. The disorderly element of the strikers have become satisfied that the soldiers mean business and are behaving themselves accordingly.

Unconditional Surrender.
The operators state that they will accept only an unconditional surrender on the part of the miners and that this is the only basis of settlement that they will accept.

Still See Victory.
The miners still see victory and will not talk of compromise. This evening a large mass meeting of the miners is to be held.

DRILL IN SECRET.

Lithuanian Strikers Preparing to Fight the Militia.

Shenandoah, Pa., Aug. 7.—General Gobin was informed that the Lithuanian members of the anarchist secret societies here were holding secret military drills and preparing to attack the troops should an opportunity present itself. This news was confirmed by Father Abramatis, pastor of the Lithuanian church.

Unless an attack should be made in overshadowing numbers there is little doubt that the troops would be able to handle the mob easily in spite of the unimpaired training of the miners. The Lithuanians are armed chiefly with shotguns, although they have old muskets and a few revolvers and sabers.

There was a continuation of assaults upon nonunion men and deputies at various points in this region, but Shenandoah is suspiciously quiet.

"Conditions in the Lithuanian district are worse than those in the worst district of any other city in the world," General Gobin said. "Each house seems to shelter a score of foreigners. Most of these men have served terms of enlistment in the armies of Russia and Austria and are trained soldiers."

Rumors that attempts would be made to start collieries have made miners begin marching to Goodspeed and other places. An emergency train to be used in conveying troops to any place where there may be disorder is held constantly in readiness here.

William Stein, the mining inspector for this district, announced that four of the Reading collieries and the Lawrence colliery, belonging to the Shearer estate of Pottsville, have been permanently abandoned at a loss of $300,000 each.

THIRTEEN ARE KILLED IN TRAIN COLLISION

Misunderstanding of Orders Leads to Fatal Wreck on St. Paul Road.

Collins, Iowa, Aug. 7.—In a collision between a freight train and a work train on the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway, four miles east of here, eleven men were killed outright two have since died and about thirty were injured seriously.

The trains came together in a deep cut and on a sharp curve, when it was impossible for either engineer to see the other train more than three or four car lengths away. Each train was making good speed, the freight to make up lost time out and the work train to reach a point to meet the freight.

Engineers S. D. Marekess of Perry on the freight and Fred Braman of Perry on the work train were instantly killed. Fred Thorp of Manila, fireman of the freight, lost one leg and will die. The flat cars on which the laborers rode were telescoped and the men thrown in all directions and buried under the debris. Eleven have been taken out dead and it is feared there are still others under the wreckage.

It is said the wreck was due to a misunderstanding of orders on the part of the conductor of the work train.

THE FACT KEPT QUIET

(Special By Scripps-Mellae.)
Washington, D. C., August 7.—Corporal O'Brien, arrested at North Adams, Mass., charged with perjury was indicted by the District of Columbia grand jury during the past week.

Fact Kept Quiet.
The fact of his indictment was kept very quiet and was not given out in the jury reports or recommendations until morning for fear of hindering his arrest. O'Brien was completely surprised when arrested and was at his home when the officers arrived for him.

A Senate Witness.
O'Brien is charged with giving false testimony before the senate investigating committee regarding the outrages committed by American soldiers upon Filipino women. His testimony when given was very racy and refuted by army officers as false.

Visitors Will Be Excluded.

They Cannot Inspect the Big Guns of the New Coast Defenses.

Washington, August 7.—(Special.)—Strict enforcement of the policy of excluding from the coast defense fortifications persons not connected with the military establishment of the United States has been decided on by the war department. There is a regulation which prohibits any person from visiting the parapets and emplacements without special authority from the secretary of war. At some artillery posts this has rigidly adhered to while at others laxity has been the cause of considerable comment. At the present time it is aimed more directly at visitors and military attaches of foreign governments.

Sentry Guards Guns.
At some posts visitors are permitted to visit the quarters the parade grounds, and other places of interest but an armed sentry bars the passage to the newly mounted guns. At Fortress Monroe a number of guns of obsolete type are kept on view for the benefit of visitors, who are admitted to the post under certain restrictions. At Fort Washington, near the national capital, the rule is strictly enforced, and no one is permitted about the post unless on official business. This is equally true of nearly all the recently equipped coast defenses and particularly so of the forts about New York, including the Sandy Hook proving ground.

Not So Strict.
Notwithstanding this a peculiar condition was discovered at Fort Wright, where several guns of large caliber have been installed and where emplacements have recently been constructed. This work about the emplacements was let by contract and the contractor has been permitted to employ on the government reservation a large gang of Italians, who have been unrestrained in their observation of mounting the guns, the storing of ammunition and the plans of the emplacements. This has been called to the attention of the war department and Acting Secretary of War Sanger has determined to bring the matter to the notice of the proper officers with a view to remedying the evil.

Vacation Schools a Benefit.
The merit of the vacation school idea is widely recognized and many of the large cities have adopted it. The purpose is to provide light study and a measure of entertainment through a few hours of the day for the children of the poor that they may be removed from the demoralizing influences of the streets. It is a most benevolent plan, of large value to the municipality, too, for it will certainly add a part of the rising generation to a better citizenship than would be attainable without such influences.

RETAIL BUTCHERS DISCUSS TRUSTS

They Recommend That Customs on Beef Be Removed at Once.

Washington, D. C., August 7.—Resolutions recommending that eastern, middle and southern states offer inducements by bounty or any other means for the upbuilding of the industry in those sections were adopted today by the National Retail Butchers' and Meat Dealers' Protective association. Resolutions extending thanks to Attorney General Knox and to Attorney General Davies of New York for their injunction proceedings against the so-called beef trust were also adopted. A resolution denouncing the alleged trust was introduced, but action was deferred until tomorrow. Action strongly opposing the passage of the bankruptcy bill which is pending before Congress was taken.

Secret Sessions.
The sessions of the convention are held behind closed doors, but the members agree in declaring that in discussing the tariff question the convention entirely ignored politics and considered only the alleged beef trust and the most effective means that could be adopted to weaken its control of the sources of supply, as well as of the market. The members believe that with free beef the so-called trust will not be able to control the foreign supply, which would be attracted to this country by the prices now prevailing.

Remove Customs.
Satisfied that they have solved the problem presented by the alleged beef trust in their resolution recommending that the customs duty on beef be removed and that the product on the hoof and dressed be admitted free of duty, the members of the association sought relaxation at a barbecue.

CEMENT TAKING PLACE OF STONE

IS BEING USED EXTENSIVELY BY CONTRACTORS.

IT HAS VALUABLE QUALITIES

Manner in Which It Is Being Handled in Railroad Signal System Attracts Attention.

Workmen at the signal tower which is being constructed for the C. M. & St. Paul railroad in Spring Brook at the McKee boulevard crossing, say that visitors who are looking over the system invariably remark upon the method in which cement is being used in the construction of the interlocking apparatus. This brings up the fact that throughout the city there are few kinds of construction under way where cement is not employed.

Better Than Stone.
In the work that the Milwaukee road is doing, cement is used to take the place of stone. Some cement is diluted with sand, a little water added, the resulting combination placed in a mould and allowed to dry. The block of cement which is produced, is in fact superior to stone, because it is cheaper. It needs no shaping and there is no expense of transportation or quarrying, while the cost of manufacturing is insignificant. Another use that is made of cement in the same signal system, is in forming a solid piece of masonry in which to set the semaphore posts. A hole is dug in the ground about three feet square, the post braced in position and then the hole is filled up with cement. After a few days the cement has hardened sufficiently to allow the braces to be removed and the result is as effective as though the semaphore had been set in solid stone.

Architectural Possibilities.
Here and there in the city there are houses which show that builders of an earlier day realized the utility, or rather the decorative possibility of cement where cobblestones have been set in that substance in long parallel rows. It is easy to jeer at the eye of the architect who designed the first of these houses, but there are those who assert that cement will be the coming substance for house building, cool in summer and warm in winter. One of the latest houses which has been built in the city, has a wall of cement.

General Utilities.
It has long been a conceded fact that cement is practically unexcelled for cellar floors, and its use for sidewalks is becoming more and more general, until the temporary fences, canvas coverings, and general air of disorder accompanying the building of one of these sidewalks is a common sight. On Milton avenue the whole street for several blocks is torn up, and an important part of the work that is going on there, is the running of a cement curbing along the street. The tiling in the city hall has been set in cement and in other places in the city where an imitation tiling is desired, a plain cement is used scored with parallel incisions to suggest the separate tiles.

There are few more imposing examples of what can be done with cement that that which is given in the abutments of the railroad bridges in Monterey, where they cross over the street and the river near the woolen mill. There may be those who believe that the footings are of massive stone and would pooh-pooh the idea of using cement for such a purpose.

Cement Fence Rails.
To the south of the city a factory of great size is being erected which will be taken up entirely in the manufacture of cement in the form of fence posts. A wire core is used within the cement, which is moulded in a hydraulic press into bars about three or four inches square and six or seven feet long. It is practically impossible to break one of them and they are unaffected by moth, rust or decay.

RAILROAD BRIDGES GO OUT

Storm in Colorado Does Damage, but Breaks Drouth.

Denver, Col., Aug. 7.—An enormous amount of damage was caused in Huerfano county by storm. Four cloudbursts have been reported. The first occurred five miles west of Walsenburg, on the Denver and Ilo Grande, and swept away a 100-foot railroad bridge. The second came down a short distance west of La Veta and swept away a railroad bridge and considerable track. The third occurred at Huerfano station, twenty-two miles north of Walsenburg, where the big iron railroad bridge was wrecked and carried downstream. A long stretch of track was washed out, allowing nine freight cars to go into the ditch.

The fourth cloudburst came down near Santa Clara, eighteen miles south of Walsenburg. Several houses were washed from their foundations and much other damage was done.

CITY HALL WORK GOES STEADILY ON

STAIRS ALMOST COMPLETED

Handsome Oak Finishings Are Being Put in Place in Municipal Court Room.

A few more days will see the completion of the staircase in the city hall building. Since the iron beam to which the stairs were to be fastened was moved, the work has gone on much more rapidly. In the court room the hard wood fittings have been put in place and the final coats of varnish are now being applied. The railing, desk and heavy oak piece of carving at the front of the room behind the judge's seat, are very handsome in design, and harmonize well with the wood work of the rest of the building.

All of the wood work save a part of that in the basement and a few touches here and there, is completed. The tiling in the halls has been laid, and the marble wainscoting will be in place shortly.

Carnegie Library.
On the Carnegie library the joists for the second floor have been more than half laid and the brick laying will be resumed as soon as the stone for the belt is in place. New Buildings.
In the first place, the accommodations at the grounds will be far better. A new pavilion is being erected for public comfort and many unfinished departments will be in good condition before the opening of the fair. The mercantile displays will doubtless be placed in tents or separate buildings and this arrangement will give more room for exhibitors in the art, textile and floral departments.

Fakirs, gamblers and all unlawful games of chance will be strictly prohibited and all objectionable features will be excluded.

Good Races.
A splendid program of races will be one of the chief attractions of the week. The Beloit half-mile track is pronounced by horsemen to be one of the best in the north-west and it is rumored that some interesting exhibitions of speed are in store for patrons of the fair. It is expected that the track record of 2:12 3/4, made last year, will be lowered.

Race Program.
The race program includes a 3:00 class trotting, purse $200; a 2:27 class trotting, purse $300; 2:18 class trotting, purse $300; free-for-all trot, purse $100; 2:40 class pacing, purse $200; 2:25 class pacing, purse $300; 2:18 class pacing, purse $300; free-for-all pace, purse $400. Entrance fee is to be 5 per cent and 5 per cent additional for all money winners. All races will be mile heats, the best three in five. Five entries and four starters will be required in any race. Rules of the American Trotting Association will govern all the events on the tracks.

When to Enter.
Entries may be made at any time now up to six o'clock on the first day of the fair. All awards will be made by single expert judges and they will commence their work on Thursday, the third day of the fair.

WILL INTRODUCE MANUAL TRAINING

Beloit Will Have a New Department in the Old Parker School.

At a recent meeting of the school board of Beloit it was decided that manual training will be one of the regular courses offered in the schools in that city. The matter has been under discussion for some time past, and now the fact that there is an unused school building on their hands has made it seem more advisable to make this extension of their system.

In Building.
Since the building of the new Parker school building the old building has been unoccupied. It is true that the building was condemned as unsanitary but it is believed that it can be easily repaired so as to accommodate a small number of pupils. The plan is to use this building for the manual training courses, fitting up the upper story especially, and making such changes as are necessary to prepare it for the work.

To Honor Famous Georgians.
It was suggested to the commission for the selection of two Georgians, whose statues are to be placed in the national hall of fame, that only one name be selected as long as Gen. John B. Gordon lives. No living man can have his statue in the hall. Dr. Crawford B. Long, the discoverer of anesthesia, according to loyal Georgians, was chosen as the first Georgian and the commission adjourned without selecting a second, in accord with the suggestion.

Plague a Philanthropist.
Since public announcement was made that John Masterson Burke of New York had given $4,000,000 to charity he has been pestered by cranks and begging letter people to such an extent that he has taken flight and gone to the country. Before he left it became necessary to post a police guard near his residence.

The Concentrated Flake Potato Co. is the latest business venture to start up in Janesville. Frank Bunyan of Stratford, Canada, is the promoter of the industry and has been in Janesville for several days looking for a location for a factory. He has also investigated other places in the potato belt but decided that Janesville was the best place for his business.

Leases Building.
He has secured a lease of the building near Athletic park that was used by S. B. Heddies and will at once begin putting it in shape for his business. Mr. Bunyan will go to Chicago in a few days and secure the necessary machinery for the business and will have it ready to install as soon as the building is in shape.

Cereal Foods.
The product of the factory is similar to other cereal foods on the market and commands a ready sale. During the business season the factory will employ a number of hands and will be a welcome addition to the industries of Janesville.

BANDIT'S BODY IS ONLY CLEW

NO TRACE OF DESPERADOES

Searching Parties Have Traversed the Country Surrounding Savanna, but Have Found No Trace of the Gang Who Held Up the Express.

Savanna, Ill., Aug. 7.—The bandits that held up the Burlington limited train near here Tuesday night have left but one clew behind them. This clew is the bullet-riddled body of a man who participated in the robbery. The belief is that, having been wounded by a shot from Express Messenger Byl's revolver, the band, fearing that the victim would fall into the hands of the train men and thus prove a witness against them, decided that as dead men tell no tales it would be policy to kill him.

Corpse the Only Clew.
Strenuous search and keen investigation by the detectives proved unavailing, with the exception of the capture of two suspects who may be able to throw some light on the affair. The only real clew that the officers have is the remains of the dead bandit; and the expectation is that some one, looking upon the features of this sacrifice to the strange, momentary whim of his desperate associates, may recognize the face and tell the tale of where he and his companions plotted their descent upon the train.

An Ideal Spot.
Searchers have traversed the country surrounding Hanover, Marcus and Savanna for miles in every direction, but without result, not a trace being had of the fugitives. The dead robber has not been identified by any of the officers.

No better spot could have been selected for the robbery than that at which the long line of heavily laden passenger coaches were halted. Savanna, five miles south, marked the last stop of the fast train, and the little siding known as Marcus was scarcely inhabited.

Escape Was Easy.
Great trees shut off the light of the moon from the cut where the rails guided the cars around a bend, and out upon a hill approaching Hanover. Half a mile distant, hidden by the woods, the broad Mississippi offered safe means of escape if the pursuit came too suddenly.

Six men were in the band, men who had loitered their days away unostentatiously in the various small towns neighbor to Marcus and Savanna for a week. The bandit who fell at the hands of his comrades was observed twice in Savanna, and each time was in the company of several others.

President Jayne announced that complaints of every kind will be in order and will be fully investigated, but adds that the work of the board will be facilitated if all charges be submitted in writing.

NATIONAL'S RAID CAREFULLY PLANNED.

Inside Working of the Scheme to Obtain the American League's Players.

Gradually there is coming to light the full history of the whys and wherefores of the present raid being made on the American league clubs by the agents of the National league.

The present attempt to take away from the younger organization its star players is now believed to be the result of a carefully laid plan of the National league managers.

According to good authority, the plan was decided upon several weeks ago, following the decisions of the United States courts in the McGuffey, Lajole and Bernhard cases. About a month ago, after Judge Dallas had handed down his decision, in which the ten days' clause in the National's contract received a knockout blow, the National league managers are said to have held a secret meeting, at which it was decided that court proceedings should cease and efforts be devoted to getting the players by the persuasion of gold and greenbacks.

National Wanted Forty-Old Players.

At that time, it is declared, the managers discussed what players they desired, and a list of some forty was decided upon, nearly all of whom were the stars who jumped the National league last year. Agents of the National were at once sent out, with such success as is known in the case of the Baltimore club, Harry Wolverton and Pitcher Miller of the Detroit. It is claimed that "big game" has been bagged in other directions and that a large majority of the forty players selected have either signed with the National for next year or else have agreed to do so.

List of Players "to Be Seen."
When the list of players "to be seen" was decided upon, each club

"IRON MAN" M'GINNITY.
(The famous ex-Orleans twirler, now with New York.)

made out a list of its former players that it desired, this barring those who have already "jumped." The list was as follows:

Pittsburg—Jimmy Williams.
Philadelphia—Orin, Lajole, Townsend, Flick, McFarland and Donahue.
Brooklyn—Jones, Wright, McGuire and Daly.
Boston—Collins, Freeman, Stahl, Di-nen.
St. Louis—Young, Heldrick, Powell, Burkett, Wallace and Harper.
Chicago—Green, Hartel, Callahan and McCormick.
New York—Gleason.

Deleahanty also was desired by the New York club, and his name was put on the list.
The efforts made by President Ebbets of Brooklyn to get Lave Cross, Waddell and Davis of the Athletics to "jump" are said to be only a starter in the intended raid on the Athletics. In addition to this trio, Hartsel, as stated above, Fultz, Seybold, M. Cross and Schreckengost are the men who, Dame Rumor has it, either have received or will be made offers by the National's agents.

On the other hand, President Johnson's visit to the east is reported to have been to consult the American's club owners as to another raid on the National league.
A New Tiger Jumper.
Princeton trackmen believe they have a coming intercollegiate broad jumper in the person of James Grimes, a freshman. He recently jumped half an inch over twenty-two feet.

Kaiser Buys the Uncle Sam.

The Kaiser has bought the American yacht Uncle Sam, owned by Francis H. Briggs of New York. The Uncle Sam won the Kaiser's prize during the Kiel yachting week.

Canny Kitchener.

It was just when some of us expected the peace settlement, that a worthy dean—a most reverend gentleman—possibly slyly thought he could steal a march on Lord Kitchener. He telegraphed from the Orange River Colony, saying: "As I am acting as chaplain and conducting divine service in very many camps to-morrow, may I ask if the hymn, 'Peace, Perfect Peace,' would not be a most appropriate one to give out to be sung?" And the great "K" wired reply: "Please yourself; but I think 'Onward, Christian Soldiers,' quite as good."—London Telegraph's War Correspondence.

STARKEY VINDICATED.

Last June a year ago there was started in Milwaukee a paper that became from its first issue the most enthusiastic supporter of the Governor and his policies. It attacked in its columns editorially and in telegraphic that body of Republicans who belonged to the conservative branch of the party. Its terms were far from complimentary and individual and personal attacks were frequently found in its columns. Among those who came in for their share of the abuse heaped upon this style of Republicans was Col. Dan B. Starkey of the Republican League headquarters. The Col. was called by names that were far from complimentary and statements were made as to his character that reflected upon his honor and integrity. Col. Starkey resented them and brought suit against the paper for libel. The case dragged and was on the September calendar of the Milwaukee courts for trial. Meanwhile the paper had not ceased to pour its abuse on the heads of the conservatives. It called them Starwarts and persistently belittled the actions of Starkey and Senator Bissell. Now comes the retribution. Now the paper must eat crow and apologize as have many others of the Governor's supporters.

By an agreement between the attorneys in the case the paper is to pay Col. Starkey a fixed sum of money and to add to its bitter dose is to publish a retraction of all it has said about him. Better still, the retraction is to be of Starkey's own composition. It is one of the bitter doses that is slowly but surely following all the followers of the executive party and while the "mills of the Gods grind slowly they grind exceedingly fine."

So the Free Press retracted and were glad to settle their damage suit with Col. Starkey. Even the mighty, high and lofty must eat humble pie once in a while.

BANDIT TRACY.

Bandit Tracy, the greatest of outlaws and murderer has at last given up the ghost. He has passed in his cheeks to the great dealer and turned his toes up to the daisies. For weeks he has eluded the most ceaseless of pursuit and has killed his men without the least compunction. He has robbed farmers and lone ranches and compelled rich men to row him across streams and bays. He has dared the forces of militia and has eluded sheriffs and deputies by the score. His name has become to Washington what Jesse James was to Missouri—a thing of terror. Tracy died as he lived, a hard hearted murderous man. He took life as does the painted savage and finally rather than be captured took his own. The wonderful endurance of this man, his daring escapes and his blood curdling stories have never been equalled. He is the prince of outlaws and thugs and by his death the country is rid of one of the scum that terrorizes the people, and teaches the young ideas of life that they had best not know. His death is a blessing to the country at large and his career ended in shame and terror of the life to come, is lesson to the youth of today.

People who came down town yesterday morning shortly after ten o'clock and stood around in the sidewalks and street corners until one o'clock for the pleasure of watching the wonderful circus pageant consisting of five painted wagons, one cake-walking horse, two donkeys with cute little bonnets tied under their chins, two camels and one big elephant, must have felt very well satisfied with themselves as they walked home to a cold dinner. It is very probable that they said a few things concerning their own common sense that would not bear repetition but then a circus always has the peculiar power of hypnotizing the most prosaic people into doing fool things.

It is but a question of time before the railroads will have big damages to pay for serious injuries and deaths resulting from carelessness on the part of their men and the backing of engines down onto helpless pedestrians or teams that are allowed to go inside the gates and are then shut in, while a punting snorting engine goes past scaring horses and children. It is not so long ago that a street car was caught inside and did not get out for the nerve and pluck of its motorman, would have been crushed to splinters by a freight. When the accident really happens, then more precautions will be taken but until this is done the same flagrant abuse of the life of persons crossing the tracks will continue.

Janesville is having a teamsters' strike. Nine of them walked out on Blake, the contractor's, work and declare they will not go back unless it is made an entire union job. Mr. Blake is willing to concede to reasonable requests but indignantly refuses to be dictated to as to just whom he shall hire. There you are. If the teamsters do not go back to work, Mr. Blake will send to Madison and fill their places with his own men.

The accident at the Northwestern crossing on the Monterey crossing should be investigated. The railroads should be compelled to place some method of warning the persons who have to cross the tracks either by a bell or some other method. The death of Mrs. Boehm was shocking and care should be taken that a like occurrence is not repeated.

Columbus, the biggest elephant in the world, yesterday showed "Popcorn George" Hall's show at the fair grounds. Columbus is doing very well and really means to have a circus if he can persuade him to buy a few horses and pay a few men their salaries.

Chief of Police Hogan and Mayor Richardson are to pass judgment on all the shows that the Elks Carnival are to allow to exhibit here. Who is to pass judgment on their judgment of what is correct to be seen?

Again the flagrant train robber holds up an express train, relieves the messenger of his charge and takes to the tall timbers.

PRESS COMMENT

Princeton Star: All Republicans should now pull together for LaFollette and Spooner.

Kenosha News: If the coal strike keeps up much longer we will hear less about the "smoke nuisance" next winter.

Marquette Eagle: Fortunately in this hot weather we are not heated up with the Schley controversy, though General Miles gets into the newspapers occasionally.

Madison Democrat: There are "quite a few" Democrats nowadays singing that sweet old song—"The Rose that all are praising is not the rose for me."

Fond du Lac Reporter: Lazy people who ought to mow their lawns, but do not, may be interested in the news that there is now an auto lawn mower for all who have the price to pay for it.

Green Bay Gazette: At least half a dozen men have so far been mentioned as desirable candidates for governor on the Democratic ticket. The best among them will be needed to make the contest at all interesting.

Oshkosh Times: The corn crop is going to be so large that the usual fears are expressed that good prices cannot be secured for it. If corn is low it is likely to be mighty lonesome.

Beloit Free Press: It will take more than Gen. Bryant and more than a state convention to kick a whole lot of the old mossback Republicans out of the Republican party. They are built right into the party itself.

Green Bay Gazette: The Tecumseh, the Oshkosh yacht, has reached Montreal and is being greatly admired by the Canadian yachtsmen. She will surprise some of them before her return to American waters.

LaCrosse Chronicle: If we remember correctly, we pointed out during the last session of the legislature that if Spooner was as popular as his friends claimed, he could be returned to the senate for a certainty if there was a primary election law in force.

La Crosse Republican and Leader: The Illinois judge who held that a dog had a right to bite a boy who let a tin can to his tail, has set an example in doing justice to dumb animals that should be followed elsewhere.

Madison Democrat: Better hurry up those Spooner clubs as fast as possible. The opposition mill is turning out candidates for the legislature, all sawed from assorted timber and warranted not to warp or check.

Eau Claire Telegram: The dark clouds which gather in the northwest from time to time and shed beautiful showers of rain have a golden lining—the prospects are good for a bumper crop.

Oshkosh Northwestern: The blow that knocked out "Bob" Fitzsimmons seems destined to perform the same service for prize fighting in general unless the public is convinced that there is nothing in the charge that the whole thing was a put up job.

Waupaca Post: M. H. Eaton, a prominent attorney of Oshkosh, has entered the list of candidates for congress from this district. This will tend to complicate matters still more and will also tend to strengthen Mr. Torrisson's and Mr. Frost's chances.

Superior Evening Telegram: Senator Billy Mason of Illinois, is up in Maine preparing for the coming senatorial campaign in his state and it is expected that when he turns his vocabulary loose the opposition will at least get nervous.

Eau Claire Leader: La Follette regards with grim disfavor the universal reputation by the people of the state of that unhappy resolution regarding Senator Spooner. The disappointment of LaFollette at his old boon companion's coronation was not more bitter.

Eau Claire Telegram: How would it do if Sen. Spooner were to write a letter and state he was in favor of all the Republican platform adopted by Wisconsin Republicans, except the primary election plank, and as to that portion that he would support it if it ever came up in the United States senate?

Appleton Post: Dave Rose is said to have a cinch on the Democratic nomination for the governorship. With such a man at the head of the Democratic ticket, it ought not to trouble any Republican—no matter how sharply he may have opposed Gov. LaFollette's re-nomination—to give the latter his earnest support.

Vernor County Censor: The adjutant general of Minnesota has agreed with the adjutant general of Wisconsin that the annual interstate artillery contest shall be held this year at Camp Douglas about the middle of August. The first contest was held last year at Lake City, Minn., and the Wisconsin team carried off the honors.

THE NEW NAVAL STATION.

Sailor Boys of the Middle West to Be Trained on Great Lakes.

Somewhere on the shores of the great lakes, "the great unsalted inland seas of America," are soon to be established a naval station and training school for naval apprentices. Congress has authorized the establishment of the station, and the selection of the site is the next step to be taken. Prominent among the candidates for the honor and profit naturally attaching to the city to be chosen are Erie, Pa.; Toledo, O.; Detroit, Mich., and Chicago. The chances are in favor of the last named, since Congressman George E. Foss, chairman of the house committee on naval affairs, to whose efforts the creation of the new station is largely due, is a Chicago man and naturally favors his own city.

A site of nearly 200 acres will be required. The school is to afford instruction to nearly 1,500 apprentices, and an expenditure of nearly $1,000,000 will be entailed. To afford the necessary instruction a number of small vessels and gunboats will be commissioned, though the existing treaty between Great Britain and the United States forbids the maintenance of large armed vessels on the great lakes.

At present the United States navy has only two training stations, one at San Francisco and the other at Newport, R. I. A training station on the lakes has long been considered a necessity. About 70 per cent of the enlisted men of the navy are from the states between the Alleghany and the Rocky mountains, but the boys from this section must go to San Francisco or Newport for the necessary preliminary training. It is said that the distance from home induces homesickness and is a prime cause of desertions and applications for discharge. As Congressman Foss phrases it: "When a station is established on the lakes, this difficulty will disappear. The young sailor could go home wearing his sailor suit, and he would return filled with a new enthusiasm and beaming with patriotism."

"It is believed that the establishment of a naval training station on the lakes will have the effect of drawing into our navy a great many strong and sturdy young men from the fields and farms of the middle west who will make excellent seamen."

THE TEAMSTERS REMAIN FIRM

WILL NOT GO BACK TO WORK
YET.

BLAKE WILL BRING TEAMS

The City Stone Crushing Plant
May Be Compelled to Shut Down.

On the one side the teamsters, who have struck under Blake Brothers still maintain that they are in the right, and will not yield if they never do another day's work, while on the other Edward Blake says that he is willing to let matters rest as they are and will have a sufficient number of horses here by Monday to continue the work. Such is the strike condition today.

Standing Idle
Standing here and there in groups the teamsters could be seen on the streets today discussing the different phases of the situation. There is no talk that savors of bitterness against the contractor, or of a desire to do anything that is not open and above board. They still say as they did the first day of the strike that theirs is the right and that they will not yield if they never work again. However they might feel about it personally their obligation to the union would not allow them to go back to the work, so long as there were sufficient union teamsters who could be employed.

Will Import Horses
Edward Blake will make no attempt to smooth over matters but will have his own teams brought here from Madison. He could, he says, hire sufficient men here to do the work with their horses, but the danger is that the strikers would induce them to join the union and the original difficulty would be repeated. On the other hand with his own horses he will be accountable to no one and need be in no fear of another interruption in the work.

Crusher Will Stop
Mr. Blake said that it will doubtless lead to the stopping of the city stone crushing plant for a few days, but that work will be resumed soon. At the stone crusher works today the men were put on small jobs that had been lying ready to be done at any time. It is this work should run out and it would necessitate taking all hands off the quarry, there would still be work around the city on which the men could be employed, so that it would not mean any serious loss to them.

Talk Moderately.
Whether there will be a serious loss to parties outside of the crusher plant cannot be said as yet. Today there was none of that open talk among the strikers of calling upon the trades council to order a sympathetic strike of the bricklayers and carpenters, that was voiced so loudly on the street corners yesterday. The men are determined that they shall proceed with no violence, or hot-headedness.

Fine Grading
In the meantime a part of the macadamized street stands a proof of the kind of work that is being done by the contractors. When the contract is completed every resident of Milton avenue, and of the city may well be proud of the grading, paving, and curbing that has been done. Engineer D. D. Bennett said that the sub-grade was the finest that he had ever done any rolling on in his life, and he had been rolling for nine years.

JANESVILLE IS DESERTED TODAY

GROGERS TAKE BIG CROWDS

To Their Annual Excursion—Spending the Day in Milwaukee and at Whitefish Bay.

It was a jolly crowd that gathered at the St. Paul passenger station this morning to take in the annual grocer's excursion to Milwaukee. The crowd was not as large as was expected, but something over four hundred were aboard the train at 8 o'clock when it pulled out for Milwaukee. It was a fine day for the excursion and the temper of the excursionists was in keeping with the day.

Go To Whitefish Bay
The trip includes an excursion to Whitefish Bay where the majority of the pleasure seekers will undoubtedly spend the day. Others will take in the sites of the city and a number of the proprietors of the stores will combine business with pleasure.

The Elks took advantage of the excursion to send a delegation of Elks with posters, cards and other advertising matter to be distributed at the stations along the route. They will also see that a liberal supply of advertising matter is distributed about Milwaukee.

Miss The People
It makes a great difference with a place the size of Janesville when four hundred people, a majority of them active business men, go out of town. The streets have the appearance usually taken on over Sunday. While there were a good many people on the streets, going to and from work, the hustling delivery wagons are missing and the absence of the usual display of goods outside the store doors gave the streets a sort of a deserted look.

Many Are Short
A number of people are complaining today because they did not heed the notice that the grocery stores would be closed and in consequence are living on short fare.

KNEW OUTLAW HARRY TRACY

HE WORKED FOR ED MOZART IN 1896.

WAS A QUARRELSOME MAN

He Tried To Be Boss Everywhere, or Would Fight with Any one.

Mr. Edward Mozart, the representative of the Morris and Berger Carnival company that will be here in connection with the Elks' street fair claims to have known Tracy, the Washington outlaw that committed suicide yesterday to avoid arrest.

Mr. Mozart said: "Tracy worked for the Morris Pony and Dog Show in Colorado in 1896. He was one of the roughest of the show and after three weeks we were forced to discharge him for his quarrelsome ways. One thing I remember about him was that he tried to beat up the 'boss' canvasser and then appropriated a new suit of clothes he had bought and wore them. He was a very noisy, ignorant fellow and always wanted everyone to know who he was and what he could do."

In Tacoma
"The next year I met Tracy, up in Tacoma while a street fair was being projected and I sent him up into Victoria to bill the town and country. He got into a fight with a local bill poster at Whitcomb and after half killing him had to skip in the night. The posters I had given him were sent back to me with the story of his actions."

Starts For The North
"Later I met him in Seattle and he was then talking of going to Dawson City with a well-known coast character named J. W. Roscoe. He was considered a bad man and a very quarrelsome one. He gambled when he could not find work, but when working, if given his own way, was a good workman. I saw him in Idaho the same year and at that time he was employed on a ranch, and came in to town to see our show."

"While he was a rough, hard hearted sort of a man on the outside I have seen him do little acts of kindness for some of the workmen that showed that he was not entirely wrong."

MISS PALMER ENTERTAINS

Guests Embroidered Handkerchiefs for Prospective Bride—Decorations Were Japanese.

Unique, indeed was the Japanese luncheon and thimble party given by Miss Elizabeth Palmer at her home, 115 Madison street, yesterday afternoon, at three o'clock in honor of her friend, Miss Sue E. Lowell, whose marriage to C. V. Hubbard, of Racine, takes place next week.

The twenty-four young ladies, who were Miss Palmer's guests, responded to her invitation to bring their thimbles with them and each guest embroidered an initial on a handkerchief. These dainty squares of linen, bearing the handiwork of her friends, were given to Miss Lowell in a very handsome case which was made by Miss Palmer.

Reminders of Japan
The guests were entertained on the broad porch of the Palmer home, which was elaborately decorated with cut flowers, Japanese umbrellas, lanterns and draperies, this oriental coloring being effective and especially appropriate because of the fact that Miss Lowell's future home is to be in Tokio, where she and Mr. Hubbard will be engaged in missionary work.

Unique Games
After the needlework was completed the guests indulged in guessing games which were most cleverly planned. Japanese Favors
The three course luncheon, while followed the games, was delicious in quality and was faultlessly served. A novel feature of the luncheon was the presentation of a Japanese favor to each guest. These favors will be prized by Miss Lowell's friends as souvenirs of a delightful afternoon spent with her as Miss Palmer's guests and just as certainly will Miss Lowell, when she is installed in her Japanese home, cherish the handkerchiefs which were given her yesterday and which will serve as eloquent reminders of her girlhood friends, and of the happy gathering of yesterday.

Has Original Ideas
Miss Palmer is always a charming hostess and the entertainments which she plans for her friends are always quaintly original. Yesterday's party was one of the most successful ever given by her.

Unique Games
After the needlework was completed the guests indulged in guessing games which were most cleverly planned. Each guest was given a painted hat, which the hostess styled a "thinking cap" and these hats contained the material for the amusing intellectual contest which followed. The first prize was an especially pretty water color, was obtained by Miss Helen Nash, while the consolation prize went to Miss Jessie Butler.

FIND THE LADY'S HEAD.

CONVICT TRACY ENDS HIS LIFE

WOUNDED BY HIS PURSUERS

Realizing That His Time Had Come the Desperate Criminal Placed a Revolver to His Head and All Was Over.

Spokane, Wash., Aug. 7.—Harry Tracy, the outlaw and escaped convict, killed himself with one of his own revolvers while lying in a wheat field on the Eddy farm, eleven miles south-east of Creston, Wash., where he had fled after a running fight with four men who were in pursuit.

When Tracy's body was discovered it was found that he had been shot through the right leg between the thigh and the knee and that a severed artery had been bleeding profusely. Beside the dead outlaw lay his rifle and a revolver. Another revolver was clutched in his left hand and the top of his head was badly shattered.

Drove Outlaw to Death.

The men who drove Tracy to his death were citizens of Creston, headed by C. A. Straub, a deputy sheriff. The other four men were Dr. E. C. Lanter, Morris Smith, an attorney; J. J. Morrison, a railway section foreman, and Frank Lillinger.

The posse from Creston took the trail and got their first information from a boy named Goldfinch, who had been compelled by Tracy to assist him at the farm of B. L. Eddy, on Lake creek.

Tracy had been at the Eddy farm for nearly twenty-four hours when his pursuers arrived there and found Farmer Eddy at work.

They knew Tracy was somewhere about and began to make inquiries.

Discovers Pursuers.

Tracy came from the barn and began helping his host unhitch the horses. He carried no rifle, although he had his revolvers in place. The fugitive finally saw the men carrying rifles, and, turning sharply to Eddy, said: "Who are these men?"

Tracy pointed out the two men on the hill. Eddy informed his companion who the men were, and the outlaw made a leap for the barn door. The pursuers, stepping a bit closer, commanded: "Hold up your hands." The outlaw jumped behind Eddy and placed first the farmer and then his horse between himself and the pursuers. He commanded the farmer to lead his horse to the barn, remaining under cover, moved toward shelter.

Fires on Posse.

When near the stable he broke and dashed inside. He quickly reappeared, rifle in hand, and started on a dead run.

Turning on the two men nearest him, the desperado fired two shots, but without his usual luck, neither bullet taking effect. Without waiting for further fighting Tracy made a dash down the valley leading south from the barn and headed for the brush.

In an instant the man hunters were off in pursuit, firing as they ran. Coming to a rock Tracy dodged behind it and resting his gun on the rock began a fusillade. Eight shots in all were fired by the outlaw, not one hitting its mark. Then Tracy bolted for a wheat field close by. At the edge of the field he stumbled, falling on his face, and crawled into the grain on his hands and knees.

Escapes in Wheat Field.

It was growing dark and the pursuers, not daring to move in closer, decided to surround the place and wait for daylight.

The watchers at daybreak began a cautious advance toward the middle of the wheat field, where Tracy was supposed to be. After a few minutes' search Tracy's body was found.

The fugitive had taken a strap and buckled it tight around his leg in an attempt to stop the bleeding. Despite the tightly fastened strap the bleeding continued until he probably realized his hopeless condition and ended the struggle.

MINERS LOSE HABEAS CORPUS

HE UPHOLDS JUDGE JACKSON

Concludes That Guarantee Trust Company of New York Is Entitled to a Standing in Court—Mother Jones Encourages the Men.

Clarksburg, W. Va., Aug. 7.—Leaders of the miners' strike were given another blow when Judge Goff decided the habeas corpus case against the men sentenced to prison by Judge Jackson. In a lengthy opinion he upheld his conferee, and remanded the prisoners to the custody of the marshal and sheriff. The men will be removed to Parkersburg to serve the remainder of their sentences.

Judge Goff said the only question was as to jurisdiction, and that the Guarantee Trust Company of New York was entitled to a standing in court, and it was not absolutely necessary for the fuel company to be made a party to the suit.

The decision is a great disappointment to the miners, and their counsel say that no other action can be taken for the present at least.

Does Honor to His Name.

Charles Tennyson, a grandson of the late poet laureate, won distinction at Cambridge university this year. His father was the late Lionel Tennyson, third son of the poet.

Doctors not seldom give up a case, but a mother never does. While life lasts, while there is a spark of vitality which love's labor may fan into a flame, she fights untiringly for the child she brought into the world. And sometimes where the doctors fail the mother succeeds. She has no prejudices. Any means she will use which will save her child.

The mother's prescription given below is a case in point. Her daughter was given up by physicians as suffering from an incurable disease, called "wasting of the digestive organs." The mother prescribed Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and "Favorite Prescription," and had the happiness of seeing her daughter restored to perfect health.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It is a nerve-nourishing, flesh-forming medicine—making new blood and new life. "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol and it is absolutely free from opium, cocaine and all other narcotics. It is a true temperance medicine.

"My sister of Arlington, Washington Co., Neb." was taken very sick and had several doctors, writes Mrs. C. L. Harrison of Elk City, Douglas Co., Neb. They could not do her any good, and told my mother they would not come any more, as no doctor could help her, that she could not get well. She had 'wasting of the digestive organs.' My mother said to my sister: 'Well, I almost know that Dr. Pierce's medicines will cure her.' So she bought six bottles—three of 'Golden Medical Discovery' and three of 'Favorite Prescription'—and some of the 'Pell's' and now my sister is a well woman.

"We thank you for your medicine." Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

T. A. B. PICNIC AT EDGERTON

MANY FROM HERE ATTEND

Good Races and Fine Games Made the Day a Most Enjoyable One.

The annual picnic and races of the T. A. B. society held at Edgerton yesterday proved a grand success. The day was most auspicious and the attendance large, fully twenty-five hundred people participating in the carnival sports; the Edgerton citizens young and old turning out en masse.

The exercises in the morning were not neglected and a rousing crowd followed the band to the fair grounds. The chapter of accidents and incidents, by the way, commenced with the morning games, a young man from Stoughton receiving a serious injury to one of his legs in the ball game.

Many Janesville People
The attendance from Janesville was large, prominent among them being John J. Cunningham, who assisted at the ceremonies and as a judge of the races. Father Goebel circulated among the throng in the interest of the picnic and races to be given by his church societies next Wednesday.

The German societies class high for revelry and fun in their outings, but who the Irish societies have a gathering there is always "something doing."

Horse Racing
The horse racing proved unusually interesting principally from local factional feeling engendered from jealously and rivalry. Every race was for blood and was contested as closely as if the stake had been for thousands.

The Winners
The first race for the three-minute class, half-mile heats, was won by the fast young mare, Pearl C., owned by Conway Brothers in 1:10 1/4. 1-11 1-4, 1:12 1-2 and Hammill driven by Joe Bassett getting second; El Paso, third money.

The 2:40 pace and trot was also won by Conway Brothers with Pearl C.

The Free-For-All
The principal interest centered in the free-for-all. Speculation had been rather heavy on this event and it developed that a determined and concentrated effort had been made by certain local capitalists to defeat Nicholas J., and secure a pot of Owner Blvin's coin. First, the talent relied upon Ira S. to beat Nicholas J.; later they weakened on him and then looked to "Diamond H" and "Belle Acton" the Madison contingent, to turn the trick for them, but all combined effort proved futile as after the young horse, Fremont S., won the first heat in 1:07 1-2, and "Belle Acton," by a fluke, won the second in 1:09, "Nicholas J." went in and won as he pleased, well-driven by his old owner in 1:08, 1:07 1-2 and 1:08.

Slight Accident
A collision between "Ira S." driven by Iva Bassett and "Nicholas J." driven by Gus Lee, in the second heat, resulted in unseating "Nicholas J." driver and preventing him from contesting the second heat. "Belle Acton" won second money. Fremont S. won third.

Considerable local interest was taken in the special race won by the popular merchant, J. W. Conn, after Ed. Peters' old "Pet" petered on him.

HONOR FOR RELIEF CORPS

Mrs. Potter is Appointed an Aide To State President

Mrs. Victoria Potter, of W. H. Sargent, W. R. C. No. 21, has received the appointment of aide to the department president of the Wisconsin W. R. C. This is the second honor which has been conferred on the local corps by the state department recently. Mrs. Ada P. Kimberley, having been elected senior vice president at the state convention at Stevens Point. W. H. Sargent corps feels justly proud that two of its members have been called to fill positions of honor in the state.

NEWS OF THE CITY IN BRIEF.

Will Sleep in Building: The boys at the West Side fire station will soon have their sleeping apartments up stairs.

College Buys Land: Milton college has purchased six acres of land adjoining the present college site from A. J. Root. A home for the president will be one of the improvements.

Voting Has Commenced: Voting for the queen of the Elks carnival started this morning at Klug's pharmacy. The votes will be counted each evening and the result published.

Building New Bridge: The Northwestern railroad company are building a new bridge across the Milwaukee cut on Center avenue just south of where Mrs. Boehm was killed yesterday.

Receive $5,000 More: A draft for $5,000 was received yesterday by City Treasurer Fathers from Andrew Carnegie to apply on his library donation. This is the second draft received from him, the first one having been received some time ago. The amount has been placed to the credit of the library board.

Burns the Awning: Yesterday shortly after noon the awning in front of Hall, Sayles & Fildes' was discovered to be on fire and quite a hole was burned in the center section before the blaze was extinguished. It is supposed that the fire was caused by a cigarette dropped from one of the upper windows of the block, as a smoldering stub was found when the fire was extinguished.

That Ball Game: This afternoon at Clinton the Janesville V. M. C. A. baseball team met the Clinton Maroons in what gave promise of being a close and interesting game. The Clinton players have come to believe themselves invincible, and the local players to their re-organized form have an idea that they too are capable of playing ball. Both teams went in confident of victory.

Coroner's Jury: Justice Earle issued a venire for a coroner's jury yesterday afternoon to inquire into the death of Mrs. Carl Boehm, and to fix the blame for it. If anyone is responsible, Chief Hogan summoned H. H. McKinney, Edward Inman, W. H. Merritt, David Conger, C. T. Shepard and C. W. Smith. They visited the hospital and after viewing the remains adjourned until Friday afternoon at two o'clock at Justice Earle's office to hear further testimony.

Successful Circus: Col. George W. Hall's show gave an excellent performance near the fair grounds Wednesday evening. The exhibition makes no pretence of being more than an old fashioned one ring circus, and as such it is eminently satisfactory. Some of the trained animals are very clever, and the acrobats have considerable ability. Napoleon Bonaparte, a trained donkey, did some stunts that was very amusing, and the team of strong men gave an exhibition of weight lifting with which no fault could be found. The air was so quiet that the balloon ascension was made under almost ideal conditions.

A Thoroughbred Tramp: T. Rush Thompson, as the Thoroughbred Tramp at the Myers Grand Opera House last evening, gave his part with the same realization of the comedy possibilities of the play that he has shown in the past in giving the same part. There is nothing that is original in his version, but the stock conception of the hobo philosopher is carried out admirably by W. B. Wheeler. Aside from the part taken by T. Rush, the Professional Bum, the supporting company was equal to the situation, but gave no evidence of especial skill. A fair house was in attendance.

Honor For Dr. Crow: Dr. Louise P. Crow, formerly of this city, has been appointed a member of the standing committee on legislation of the American Osteopathic association which opened the three days' session of its sixth annual convention in the Hotel Pfister at Milwaukee yesterday. Dr. Crow left Janesville some time ago disposing of her practice to Dr. Charles Bliss, who has offices in the Hayes Block.

NEW BOOK TO BE ACCURATE

Orders For City Directory Should Be Given To Solicitors

Work on the new city directory is progressing rapidly and the census is being taken by the young men in charge of the work. They are also soliciting subscriptions for the directory and the people should remember that this will be their only opportunity to secure the book. Many people wish to consult other members of the family before giving an order but the consultation should be held before the solicitor calls. He will only go over the ground once and only the number of books for which orders are received will be printed, so that there will be no chance to purchase a book later. Few people realize the value of a directory in the home until they have used one. The price for the new one, which will be complete and accurate, will be $1 and orders must be given to the solicitor who takes the census.
